TRIBUTE TO STANLEY D.
STEINBORN

HON. LYNN N. RIVERS

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 11, 1997

Ms. RIVERS. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to take this opportunity to recognize the upcoming retirement of Mr. Stanley D. Steinborn, the deputy attorney general for the State of Michigan. Mr. Steinborn's 34 years of government service with Michigan's Office of Attorney General reflect the commitment, talent, and integrity he has brought to our State government.

Raised in Alpena, MI, the son of a bricklayer, Mr. Steinborn graduated from Michigan State University and obtained his law degree from Northwestern University in Chicago. He voluntarily interrupted his education to serve in the Korean war. He returned to Alpena to practice law, where he became friends with a recently settled local lawyer, Frank J. Kelley, who later became Michigan's attorney general. Mr. Steinborn joined Mr. Kelley in Lansing as an assistant attorney general in 1963, and has served as chief assistant and deputy attorney general since 1973, overseeing a staff of 250 lawyers.

The mark Mr. Steinborn has made on Michigan State government is reflected by the comments of so many who have worked with him. Mr. Frank Kelley, who remains our Nation's longest serving State attorney general recently said: "Mr. Steinborn has had a long and distinguished career as a public servant with the Office of Attorney General. He has been not only a colleague in law, but he has been my friend." Mr. Steinborn's contributions are recognized across party lines. Lucille Taylor, Governor Engler's top legal counsel, has nothing but praise for Mr. Steinborn:

I have worked very closely with Stan Steinborn during the past six years—sometimes on an almost daily basis. I respect the way he has performed his job. I have learned a lot from him, and I think he is an example of committed civil servant—a person who is really committed to his work and to the state. I admire him. If I ever had his job, I would do it exactly like he has.

Through the years, Mr. Steinborn has held firm to his ideals and convictions, while never losing sight of his priorities. Foremost in his life is his family. He and his wife of 42 years, Annette, have raised four children whose chosen careers mirror the values instilled in them by their parents—a medical social worker in my district, a civil engineer employed by the State of California, an attorney in private practice in Washington, DC, and a schoolteacher in the city of Detroit. It is a source of great family pride that all of the Steinborn's hold at least one degree from Michigan State University. Mr. Steinborn and his wife no doubt will stay busy in the years ahead enjoying their extended family that now includes four grandchildren.

Mr. Steinborn touched so many with whom he has worked. His dedication to the high ideals of our legal system and our democratic form of governance will surely serve as an important example for the many who have known and worked with him. It is my distinct pleasure to recognize his many important contributions to our State. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

COMMENDING THE LAUREL
VOLUNTEER RESCUE SQUAD

HON. STENY H. HOYER

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 11, 1997

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, it gives me great pleasure to rise today and recognize the Laurel Volunteer Rescue Squad as they prepare to celebrate their 45th anniversary on March 15, 1997. The history of this rescue squad dates back to 1952 and is filled with many significant and historic accomplishments which makes Laurel home to one of the most successful and decorated rescue squads in the Nation.

Since the first ambulance service and rescue squad was formed in 1952, the citizens of Laurel have always supported the men and women who are on the front lines of public safety every day. Additionally, the rescue squad has been at the forefront of teaching and developing heavy rescue techniques for the Maryland Fire and Rescue Institute and the Prince Georges County Fire Department. However, the hard work and dedication of the rescue squad has been felt well beyond the town limits of Laurel. They have provided emergency care for five Presidents at their inaugural ceremonies and administered emergency care to Alabama Governor George Wallace after the attempted assassination in Laurel in 1972. They were also first on the scene when my good friend, Congresswoman Gladys Noon Spellman, fell ill.

Mr. Speaker, one of the greatest legacies of the Laurel Volunteer Rescue Squad has been its accomplishments in the international first aid competition arena. Dating back to 1965, both the men and women's teams have captured the world championship in first aid and rescue competition on several occasions. Last year, they surpassed all expectations, winning an unprecedented first and second place in the emergency medical technician competition.

Mr. Speaker, from the beginning, this rescue squad has excelled. They have seen a steady increase in membership, responsibility, and expertise and it is my honor to be able to recognize their many accomplishments as they celebrate their 45th anniversary. I commend the over 250 members of the Laurel Rescue Squad who embody the dedication and commitment that defines volunteer service.

John F. Kennedy once described the essence of public service as the following: "The energy, the faith, the devotion which we bring to this endeavor will light our country and all who serve it, and the glow from that fire can truly light the world." I can think of no organization which embodies the values of public service and volunteerism, and which lights our country every day, more than the Laurel Volunteer Rescue Squad.

Mr. Speaker, it gives me great pleasure to rise today to congratulate the Laurel Rescue Squad on this great achievement and to wish them continued success as they serve our community and our State for many years to come.

AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE

HON. PATSY T. MINK

OF HAWAII

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 11, 1997

Mrs. MINK of Hawaii. Mr. Speaker, I am introducing a bill to require notice to automobile insurance policyholders before a paid up policy can be either canceled or renewal refused.

Many of my constituents without warning or for insignificant reasons are being cut off of automobile insurance coverage and with little time allowed to find another company.

My bill will require at least 180 days notice before a cancellation or decision not to renew can take effect provided the premiums are fully paid up and there is no court order canceling the holder's driver's license.

In many places in my district the only means of transportation is one's automobile. To have to drive without insurance coverage is a public hazard. People need to be told well in advance if a company is refusing to renew or plans to discontinue coverage.

This is not interference with the company's right to decide who to cover or not cover. It is only a requirement of due notice. I urge my colleagues to support this bill.

TRIBUTE TO CAROLYN NOBLES

HON. ANNA G. ESHOO

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 11, 1997

Ms. ESHOO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Carolyn Nobles, a dedicated community leader who is being honored as an inductee into the San Mateo County Women's Hall of Fame.

Carolyn Nobles has energetically and generously served her community for many years. She recently organized an effort to raise $120,000 to build a playground in the North Fair Oaks community, and was a founding member of the Probe Auxiliary, which raised $100,000 to benefit children's programs in Redwood City. She was a founding member of Friends of Redwood City and Redwood City's Citizens against Racism, which sponsors scholarships for minority students attending Cañada College. She has been honored by the Sierra Club, Soroptimists International, the Volunteer Center, the Junior League, the California State Assembly, the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors, and the Save San Francisco Bay Association.

Mr. Speaker, Carolyn Nobles is an outstanding citizen and I salute her for her remarkable contributions and commitment to our community. I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring and congratulating her on being inducted into the San Mateo County Women's Hall of Fame.
